History

Four years ago in 1952 forty-nine bashful Freshmen slipped quietly into their seats. During our first orderly class meeting we elected Gilbert Dilley, President; Barbara Bowman, Vice-President; Marlene King, Secretary-Treasurer; Carole Royal, Historian; Charles Mergy, Reporter. Although we gained Bill Brand, we lost two of our classmates, Sally Olds and Rosemary Lower. We had two class parties--a skating party in September and in the spring we went to the show at Angola and stopped at the Gay Barn on the way home, under the sponsorship of Mr. Arney.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year we had forty-eight members in our class. With Paul Everitt as our sponsor, we chose Gilbert Dilley, President; Virginia Kline, Vice-President; Betty Walker, Treasurer; Jim Smith, Secretary; Sharon Farrington, Historian; Sharon Lepley, Reporter. In November we received our long-awaited class rings. At Christmas time we held a class party at the town hall and went to the show at Angola. In the spring of the year we picnicked at Pokagon State Park and then went to the show in the evening. During our Sophomore year we lost Ronald Ogden and DeWayne Esselburn.

The moving vans and birthdays decreased the class to thirty-seven after losing Richard Myers, Mary Bowerman, Bill Brand, Bernard Cron, Brooks Hamman, and Jr. Wiley. On that memorable day we elected Virginia Kline, President; LaMar Malone, Vice-President; Norma Alleshouse, Secretary; Betty Walker, Treasurer; Carole Royal, Reporter; Darlene Sutherland, Historian; and Mrs. Arney, Sponsor. After making Washington, D.C. our goal, we took turns selling candy in the hall and begging people to buy magazines, christmas candy, cars, and luscious big cakes. Our gift to the school was "Dollie's Folly," but it did blow a few fusses. As play time rolled around, we picked "Love Your Neighbor," and even started a new fad--green hair! After our big production, we celebrated at the Gay Barn. The next Monday we gathered our duds and traveled toward Washington, D.C.

As the Senior year rolled around we lost Jim Smith, Leonard Schwartzengraber, and Judy Phelps. This year we elected Virginia Kline, President; Barbara Bowman, Vice-President; Naomi Vian, Secretary; Betty Walker, Treasurer; LaMar Malone, Historian; Carole Royal, Reporter; and Mr. Fred Frederick as our Sponsor. In October we had our Senior pictures taken at Robert's Studio in Ft. Wayne. We presented our play, "Cupid in Pigtails" November 26, 1955; afterwards we held a party at Floyd Parker's home. At New Year's time we had a party at Darlene's home. On February 14, we sponsored a skating party at the Silver Moon Skating Rink. At the present time we are busy ordering our caps and gowns, working on the annual, and hunting a commencement speaker. We are looking forward to the Junior and Senior Class Trip and our graduation.

News of 1966

"And a very good evening everybody from coast to coast. This is Fred Frederick reporting the news for Herman's Funeral Shop tonight."

ON THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE:

At Geneva the foreign minister requested a last minute meeting with Secretary of State Ned Brand, to be held privately Sunday. It is believed that the foreign minister would urge him to agree on a spring date for another Big Four Conference.

When asked whom he thought would be the next French Premier, Gilbert Dilley declared that if Phyllis Hoyer would happen to run against Darlene Sutherland, he firmly believed that Danny King would out run both.

ON THE NATIONAL SCENE:

The President Dean Smith received an anonymous message which has been rumored to contain a tip for the boxing match tonight. With this tip the President hoped to balance the budget.

The former Sharon Lepley and her famous husband, who now holds controlling stock in the Ford Foundation, have recently opened stock to the public; this is the first time since 1956.

In Congress today Enno Hartman and Chuck Mergy are still debating whether it is better to smell town or country air. Mr. Mergy insisted on filibustering the entire session.

ON THE SENSATIONAL SIDE:

The Ashley TV Station A.H.S.-- TV is televising its last court trial; the public sentiment aroused by J.C. Smith, accused of stealing lollipops from small children and selling them for half price, has forced the station to discontinue the public service.

We have just received word from Indianapolis that they have the new hog-calling champion there. The winner, the former Donna Stonebraker, practiced everyday at home to win the contest. (Her poor husband.)

The famous Floyd Parker has been confined to the hospital after undergoing a serious operation for removing a codfish bone from his brain.

AND NOW FOR SOME WEATHER FLASHES:

After losing the championship hog-calling contest, to a more fit contestant, Miss Mary Biggerstaff became so furious that she caused a record breaking heat wave on the Sahara Desert.

The Ashley Nosey News Finder managed by Thelma Altimus reports that the great opera singer, Charles Hertel, when on a tour in South America, fell off the stage and caused a terrible earthquake.

NOW FOR A LOOK AT THE SPORTS SCENE:

The women's heavyweight champion, Naomi Vian, will match her wits against the great middleweight contender, Barbara Bowman, in Madison Square Garden tonight.

IN THE MISCELLANEOUS NEWS:

The union finally accepted the mediator's proposal to study the Alleshouse-Rhinehart Strike. Miss Alleshouse has walked out, along with several hundred employees, in an attempt to compel Mr. A.A. Rinehart to regrow his beard.

A new invention has just come out which may save the world yet. The master mind, Ruth Anne Shipe, has just come up with a new kind of water sprinkler which allows water to pour through only every other hole so that it misses all the weeds.

Miss Carole Royal has just been chosen the "teacher of the year." She is a chemistry teacher who also instructs spelling at IU to only advanced students.

Watch for this new best-seller which has just come off the press: "How to Love Fat, Flabby, and Flirtatious Men After Forty." The old maid writer, Miss Sharon Farrington, wrote it in her spare time while raising millions of fish worms to sell.

While modeling ready-to-wear gunny sacks, the tall, beautiful model, Marlene King, opened her mouth too wide as she yawned and severed a nerve. Now her eye will stay closed for about six weeks.

AND NOW FOR THE LOCAL NEWS:

The former Virginia Kline broke the speed record of 200 m.p.h. last Friday, when driving up Pikes Peak. Although Virginia is the mother of ten girls, she always finds time for her favorite hobby--speed driving.

Santa Claus will arrive for his annual visit in his famous plane at W. & D.'s Monday. Santa, James Northouse, has promised to talk to as many of his little friends as he can. The famous "Whirlybird" of Santa's was invented by the second Edison, Eugene DeLucenay, and this marvelous new type of rocket will be driven by no other than LaMar Malone.

AND HERE IS THE SOCIETY NEWS:

Gunsmoke's Carolyn Skelly is set to play her first non-western TV role in the "Nightmare in Red." This new role will possibly be the beginning of a new career for Carolyn.

Mrs. America, a Kentucky housewife once known as Joyce Stoy, believes housewives and their children of different countries should know each other better, so she will have sixteen barefooted sons accompany her to Russia. Today Universal International announced Jack Farver's magnificent production, "Woman at his Heels," starring Marcia Wiler as a pre-historic cave woman.

The famous Howdy Doody is furious with the story princess, Betty Walker, because she sold more Scrub-a-Dub toothpaste than he did. Miss Walker threatens to cut his strings if his smear campaign doesn't stop.

Today the famous Paris designer, Robert Bohler, was horrified to see one of the little boys, who was modeling his latest short knee pants and knee socks, catch the raveling of the left knee sock on his shoe and unravel the entire Bohler original.

"That's the news folks; glad we could get together."

Junior Class History

We started our Junior Class Year with thirty-six brave and excited Juniors. We elected class officers as follows: President, Johnnie Weilbaker; Vice-President, Nancy Phillips; Secretary, Dorothy Shore; Treasurer, Joan Whysong; Historian, Dorothy Freed; Reporter, Judy Pressler.

Barbara Ellert, Dale Kneubuhler, Harold Hasselman, Rhea High, Tom Miller, and Paul Stahl have departed from our dear class but our newcomers are Kathy Shuler, Harriet Koon, and Joyce Coffey.

Our first project was selling magazines with which we made a nice profit. Then came a paper drive which was hard work but lots of fun. Meanwhile, we sold Christmas cards, candy, had another paper drive, and sold more magazines. We sponsored eight skating parties this year.

As the annual is going to press we do not know if we are going to New York or Timbuctoo.
